Enhance Efficiency, Gain Control and Save Money with ECMNOW!

Are manual accounting processes consuming your time and energy? Regardless of size, every company has important accounting records to manage. Manual accounting practices can be time consuming, unsecure, and subject to errors. Convert paper items, like invoices, to electronic format and experience efficient processing, information control and money savings. ECMNOW! allows businesses in any industry to significantly improve their accounting practices.

- Automatically sort, route and classify documents to increase efficiency.
- Improve internal information control for compliance and accountability.
- Reduce supply and personnel costs to save money.

According to the Institute for Finance & Management (IOFM), the average organization receives at least 1,200 invoices each month at a processing cost of $11.76 per invoice. Nearly 70% of invoice handling costs are related to document handling and manual data entry alone.

Increase Efficiency with Automation

Locating a single file in a sea of documents can be a time consuming and energy wasting endeavor. Implementing an automation technology like ECMNOW! will help solve many of your accounting problems. By simply replacing a paper-based system with an electronic one, you will improve efficiency.

- Eliminate time-wasting manual data entry using artificial intelligence to extract critical invoice data.
- Automatically sort and classify documents to streamline operations.
- Cross-reference information effortlessly between ECM, accounting and other line-of-business applications.

Maintain Regulatory Compliance and Control Accountability

Many companies struggle to keep track of paper invoices and non-compliance with financial industry regulations can be costly. Laws like the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act (GLBA), Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX) and the Dodd-Frank Act require companies to manage disclosures and explain how customer data is protected, shared, and secured. ECMNOW! enables companies to control information, share documents securely and provide evidence of system security.

- Apply access restrictions such as passwords and safeguards using login credentials for digital invoices.
- Comply with data security and exchange standards by generating audit trails and reports while securely managing records.
- Setup automatic retention periods to ensure invoices are not deleted early or held too long.
